

Jim Willis Bio Continued

With the exception of graduate school and a few years in Hawaii, Jim has spent his adult life in the Pacific Northwest. While at Oregon State University he met his wife Dot, whose family hails from Southeastern Washington. Dot and Jim have two adult children. Son Monte is a lawyer in Walla Walla, where he lives with his wife Sue and daughter Eme. Daughter Carrie lives in southwest Iowa, with her husband Jon and daughters Mckenzie and Aspen.

Jim's photography is eclectic, covering a wide range of subjects including rural America, barns, dogs in humorous poses, roses and close up photography. Please feel free to browse the gallery and enjoy these unique views on life.

If you are decorating a space such as a home, an office or office complex please consider photographic art as a high quality, affordable option. To discuss options, please e-mail me.
