

Tye Watt's Bio (Continued)

In 2005 he was elected Vice Chair of the Columbia Council of Camera Clubs, served two terms and then was elected to the post of Chairman, 4C's. During that time he started the Electronic Imaging Division for both the BMPC and the 4C's. The basis of which is still in use today.

Over the years he has been recognized with several awards including "Print of the Year" for 4C's, Top 80 slides and Top Ten Best of the NW Challenge.

In 2005 he was elected Vice Chair of the Columbia Council of Camera Clubs, served two terms and then was elected to the post of Chairman, 4C's. During that time he started the Electronic Imaging Division for both the BMPC and the 4C's. The basis of which is still in use today.

Over the years he has been recognized with several awards including "Print of the Year" for 4C's, Top 80 slides and Top Ten Best of the NW Challenge.